What is the SBC?

The SBC or Small Business Center supports the development of new businesses and the growth of existing businesses by being a community-based provider of training, counseling, and resource information.

Resources

The SBC has a library of professional resources waiting to be utilized. There is a resources room that can be booked on an as-needed basis. Here, clients are granted laptop and internet access to work in a professional, distraction-free environment. The resources room also has an abundance of print materials including guides, booklets, books, plus much more for start-ups and expanding small businesses.

We also offer access to different software applications, knowledge, and information for small business from the NCDOR and IRS, as well as a database of traditional and non-traditional lending opportunities.

Free Confidential Business Counseling

The Small Business Center provides free, confidential counseling services for new and existing businesses. Available on an as-needed, by-appointment basis, this free, confidential service acts as a sounding board for ideas and concerns you may have about your business. Our professional staff will help you find solutions to your challenging business questions. No question is too simple or complicated. To register for a free counseling session, please visit www.randolph.edu/sbcbusinesscounseling.

Business Seminars and Workshops

The Small Business Center offers a wide variety of seminars, workshops, and courses to help businesses be successful, and we can design specific training for individual business needs. For a list of North Carolina Community College System Small Business Center Network classes, please visit www.randolph.edu/sbcseminars.
