

At The WEARhouse we believe that quality custom merchandise is a powerful and essential tool to help your brand or idea grow. And we're here to help you!

We offer screen printing, including mass production printing; embroidery, specialty advertising items and custom design work.

The WEARhouse is backed by 30+ years of experience. Our shop has modern-day automations in place including top of the line printing presses that help us really dial in our process and help achieve consistent accurate prints optimizing production and turn around times. Faster turnaround times also makes our pricing super competitive!

Our designers will work with you to ensure you get exactly what you need. Although we offer extensive large-scale work, we still maintain a small business feel.

Whether you're looking to enhance your current marketing with apparel or are ready to launch something new at a trade show, we offer packages and products that can meet your needs. Any order big or small, we want to help you realize your goals.
